ELLS AND BUSTLES

Nucla High School has 19 teachers on their payroll, 5 of which are travelling teachers, they travel between the High School and junior high. Nucla also offers 44 classes.

Bells ringing signal the six daily class periods. The 3:00 bell is every one's favorite as it ends our school day.

We have a lot of bustling activities as student hurry through their schedules.

Lunch break is a precious 36 minutes and represents our "most" bustling time as everyone hurries to get everywhere at once.

The wind and the rain, they call out her name
Yet she is too far to hear.
They lost her, as we lost her,
To us she was very dear.

We wonder why she left us,
We wonder why she's gone.
She never left us, God would say
Her memories carry on.

Memories of her growing up,
From the time she started walking.
Memories of her waking up,
And the time she started talking.

Memories of a wonderful girl,
Who made a lot of friends.
Memories of a happy world,
And wish it wouldn't end.

So remember the good,
Forget all the bad,
Remember the fun,
That she always had.

But now that she's gone,
And we say our farewells,
Remember her always,
Remember her well.

"The class of '79 survived the year as being sandwiched in-between the seniors and sophomores, but if you ask, "What do you have to say about the year, '77-'78, the first answer you will probably hear is, "Whew!" But, don't let that lead you astray, after they think about it a while, I'm sure they will say, "All in all, it was a good year."

"People might think of us as being the little balls that get to be bounced around, but just wait til we start doing the bouncing."
Linda Madole

Dawn Heese and Cheryl Billingsley

"Shoot for two, Mustangs."

"The pride in our school increased this year, that's what made it worth the effort."

Dawn Heese

"It's been great to be a part of rebuilding the school spirit. Keep up the good work everybody."

Cheryl Billingsley

"In spite of our youth, adversity, and things I said in college, we showed a lot of character, and improvement."

ENERGY AND INGENUITY

"F.B.L.A. IS A GOOD place to turn for leadership, challenge, and maturity to brave the real world."
 Kim Talbert, Rep.

"The most important contribution any woman can make is to provide a happy home."
 Judy Woods

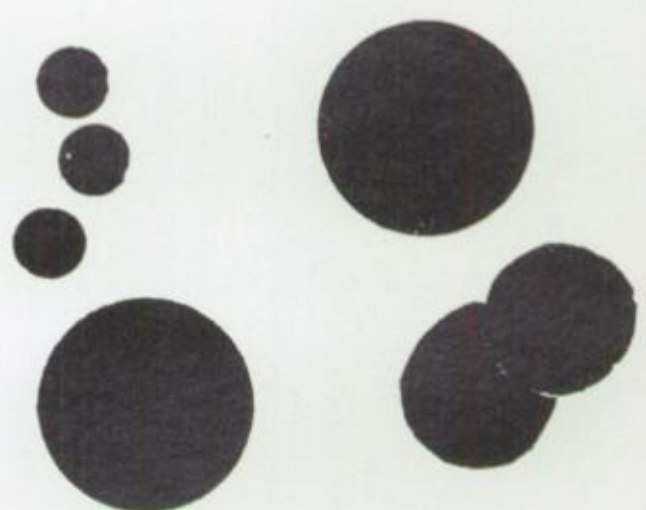

"The snow was great this year, We skied in it, wrecked in it, played in it, and nearly froze."
 Lisa Madole

Energy and ingenuity are two factors readily displayed by the various organizations at Nucla High School.

We ask the merchants to supply us with the needed support for our yearbook in the form of advertisements. A good, healthy respect for this support should demand that we, as customers, should return our business to them.

Without this monetary support, we would be unable to publish this kind of yearbook.

Whenever you recycle your money, remember our advertisers. These are the people who supply and meet your demands.
